Welcome

Thank you for considering CQES for your educational needs. CQES strives to provide each student with a quality education and the knowledge needed to be successful. CQES is owned by Gretchen Batis and is Licensed by the Nevada Commission on Postsecondary Education.

“CQES is a school every caregiver needs; it is so informative and empowering. I would recommend CQES to anyone!” Margaret. (Professional Caregiver Graduate)

Facility Members

Our Academic Director Priscilla Santayana, M.Ed., RN, B-C has over 60 years of experience in the healthcare industry. Christopher Mirando and Brian Murphy are assistants and instructors and will assist students with registration and enrollment and testing.

Our instructors use a variety of interactive teaching methods to enhance the learning experience and are committed to training high-quality direct care workers. All these things, combined with low student-teacher ratios, result in what we believe to be unsurpassed quality training.

Mission Statement

Professionally educate individuals in the non-medical healthcare industry or private sector and to promote the continued growth of quality residential, assisted living and In-home services in the state of Nevada.

DETR Job Connect

Training Provider

CQES is an approved provider for Job Connect / DETR of Nevada. This partnership may provide some funding for certification programs to qualified individuals. You must meet all DETR eligibility requirements.

Enrollment Process

Students wishing to enroll must complete the enrollment agreement application and speak with Director Gretchen Batis. To ensure a prospective student can complete the program and benefit from it, each student should have a high school diploma or equivalent. A pre-exam at CQES will provide sufficient testing for enrollment if a diploma is not available. College transcripts or healthcare licenses will provide sufficient documentation. Please read more about the process in the Student Rights in Disclosures section.

Facility: The training facility consists of a testing classroom along with a restroom and a break area.

Admission Requirements

Qualified applicants are expected to meet all admission criteria:

1. Student must not have committed a felony/misdemeanor within the past seven years.
2. It is recommended that students have a High School diploma or High School Equivalent. Students who do not have a High School diploma or High School Equivalent must pass an "Ability to Benefit" pre-examination prior to enrollment (must pass with 80% or higher)

Center for Quality Eldercare Services

We are a non-degree institution licensed by the Commission on Postsecondary Education. We offer the Certification of Completion for the HCQC (The Bureau of Health Care Quality and Compliance) Initial 16-hour Medication Management.

Students Rights

Persons interested in this program will receive a current and complete catalog containing information describing the program offered, objectives of the program, length of the program, schedule of tuition, fees and all other charges and expenses necessary for completion of the course of study, policies concerning cancellations and refunds, an explanation of the Account for Student Indemnification and other material facts concerning the institution and the program or course of instruction that are likely to affect the decision of the student to enroll therein, together with any other disclosures specified by the Administrator or defined in the regulations of the Commission. The information must be provided before signing the agreement to enroll.

Additionally, we will provide each student with a current and complete copy of the agreement to enroll, dated and signed by the student or the student's guardian if under 18 years of age and an officer of the institution. In this agreement enrollment you will have the opportunity to review each section of the agreement and have opportunity to ask questions.

Cancellation Procedure

You have the right to cancel your enrollment agreement or withdraw from Center for Quality Eldercare Services and obtain an applicable refund. CQES follows the refund policies that are prescribed by the Commission on Postsecondary Education of Nevada. A student who never attends a class. You may cancel the enrollment agreement by providing a written notice to withdraw by email or mail the school office.

3- day Cancellation Policy

If a student cancels his or her enrollment before the start of the training program or no later than three (3) days after signing the Enrollment Agreement, the institution shall refund to the student all the money the student has paid. Cancellation may occur when the student provides a written notice of cancellation to the campus. This can be done electronically, by mail, or by hand delivery. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with proper postage. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however, expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the Enrollment Agreement.

Refund Policy

You have the right to cancel your agreement for the program if instruction, without penalty or obligations. An agreement to enroll may be cancelled not later than 3 days after signing the agreement. If a student cancels his or her enrollment before the start of the training program, the institution shall refund to the student all the money the student has paid, minus 10 percent of the tuition agreed upon in the enrollment agreement or $150, whichever is less, and that if the institution is accredited by a regional accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, the institution may also retain any amount paid as a nonrefundable deposit to secure a position in the program upon acceptance so long as the institution clearly disclosed to the applicant that the deposit was nonrefundable before the deposit was paid. That if a student withdraws or is expelled by the institution after the start of the training program and before the completion of more than 60 percent of the program, the institution shall refund to the student a pro rata amount of the tuition agreed upon in the enrollment agreement, minus 10 percent of the tuition agreed upon in the enrollment agreement or $150, whichever is less. If a student withdraws or is expelled by the institution after 3 completion of more than 60 percent of the training program, the institution is not required to refund the student any money and may charge the student the entire cost of the tuition agreed upon in the enrollment agreement. . If a refund is owed pursuant to subsection 1, the institution shall pay the refund to the person or entity who paid the tuition within 15 calendar days after the (a) Date of cancellation by a student of his or her enrollment; (b) Date of termination by the institution of the enrollment of a student; (c) Last day of an authorized leave of absence if a student fails to return after the period of authorized absence; or (d) Last day of attendance of a student, whichever is applicable. Books, educational supplies, or equipment for individual use are not included in the policy for refund required by subsection 1, and a separate refund must be paid by the institution to the student if those items were not used by the student.
