

Center For Quality Eldercare Services

3660 N. Ranch Dr. # 101 Las Vegas, NV 89130 (702) 489-5822

Licensed to Operate by the Commission on Postsecondary Education

Course Syllabus
101: Elder Abuse
2022

Subject: Elder Abuse

Instructor: Gretchen Batis

Virtual training: <https://cqes.org/online-classes/>

Phone (702) 489-5822

Email: CQES@CQES.org

Course Description:

This course will provide a knowledge to assist the elderly in maintaining their independence and retaining quality of life. During the training, students will understand core fundamentals of what is considered Elder Abuse. They will have the working knowledge of NRS 200.5092

Course Objectives:

After Completing this Course the Student:

- Describe what is considered elder abuse
- Describe the types of elder abuse
- Identify, describe, and differentiate cases of abuse, neglect, and exploitation; describe preventive measure
- Common risk factors and warning signs
- Describe guidelines for reporting sexual elder abuse
- Will understand who is a mandated reporter
- The roll of a PCA agency to avoid elder abuse from staff andany one visiting the clients in their care.
- Failure to report Elder Abuse and the concequences ; state the reporting requirements and identify legal penalties.
- Types of reporting and to what agencies.
- What information is required when reporting